NEW ARTISTS

Community development

MARISSA

An Omaha native specializing in watercolor, gouache, and ink, she has exhibited her work in several juried art shows and holds a BA in Art Therapy. She holds a full-time position at a local Montessori school while accepting art commissions.

JOSH

Drawing from a range of experience, Josh uses wood, glass, plant life, and paint to blend old and new elements. Josh focuses his craft to develop liminal spaces that highlight resilience as nature merges with his artwork.

AMBER NICOLE

An Engineer by trade, Clearly Alive Art captures the essence of living life fully beyond life events. Recognized for her artwork in prior art competitions, Amber calls on us to make the most of our lives through her artwork.

Drop in and help us welcome our newest art community members!
